

what sinclair is trying to do is blatantly political , and plainly electioneering . what is frightening is that sinclair owns more TV stations than anyone else by far , and therefore have tremendous influence . this is , i'm afraid , the price we are paying for irresponsible deregulation of the airwaves . please return sanity to the process and STOP sinclair .